CLIPPINGS FROM EXCHANGES.

PLAIN BAILING WITH RODBY. From Ban Marcial Bee.

For the republicans politics is a pleasant pastime these days. No explanations are necessary when you approach a voter and the conversation turns upon the political contest in New Mexico for delegate. The most isolated individual has learned that Hon. B. 4. Rodey is the candidate of the repub-Bean party for delegate to congress. and the most cranky person, be his polities what they may, has no lisparaging word against our nominee. The name of Rodey stands for truth, justice, friendship and energy in every quarter of the territory, and every advanced citizen feels that his election will be a good thing for New Mexico, in respect to the influence that a capable and high minded delegate may wield in Washington, Mr. Rodey's election will greatly enhance our prospects for early admission to statehood; sepulation. To this end they will vote for Mr. Rodey, and take no chances with Mr. Larragolo, who is a stranger to them personally, a recent ar-rival in New Mexico, and devoid of any Largely owing to his efforts the confli claim upon their friendship beyond that of unifonality.

HONEST AND ELOQUENT.

From Bocorro Chieftain. The Chieftain just week contained the statement that lion. B. S. Rodey was a man of more than average shility, that he was honest, that he was eloquent, and that he had a wide acquaintance in New Mexico. The statement was made on the strength of reports and the probability that the repah/tean party of the territory would nominate no man without those quali- boys. fications for the highest political position in its gift.

Monday night Mr. Hodey delivered an From Hoswell Hegister. address before a crowded assembly in the court house of this city an address that must have proved every point in the statement cited to the satisfaction of republicans and democrats alike. The statement that Mr. Rodey is able, onest, and eloquent was supported by greater degree of probability is desired it will be afforded on the sixth day of "ovember, The republican party of this territory has no reason to censure its convention for its choice of a candidate for delegate to congress. On the contrary the wisdom of its nomines will be amply vindicated three weeks from next Pusday, when the returns will show the triumphant election of Hon. B. S.
